

All your Mac questions answered!

Whether you're one of the thousands unwrapping your first Mac or you're already an experienced Mac user, Mac Bible is the perfect Mac primer, from the very basics up to all the cool stuff. First get up to speed on Safari[®] and business tools, set up user accounts, and add your Mac to a network. The fun continues as you see how to edit digital video with iMovie, organize your calendar with iCal[®], get the most out of iTunes, and much more. It's 600 pages jam-packed with the information you need to succeed with your Mac.

- Go under the hood and find out what makes a Mac tick
- Master Mac OS[®] X, the Mac operating system
- Get down to business with spreadsheets and presentations
- Print and scan, download iTunes[®], and organize contacts
- Make iMovie[®] magic, create podcasts, and edit photos
- Troubleshoot and back up your Mac

A full-color, 32-page insert offers vibrant, colorful screen shots and photo images showing you the cool things you can do with iPhoto, iMovie, and other Mac applications.

Dwight Spivey

is a software and support engineer for Konica Minolta, where he specializes in working with Mac operating systems, applications, and hardware, as well as color and monochrome laser printers. He also teaches classes on Mac OS X, which he has used and tested since its first public beta was released in 2000.

About the Author

Dwight Spivey is the author of How to Do Everything: Mac and Mac OS X Leopard Portable Genius. He is also a software and support engineer for Konica Minolta, where he specializes in working with Mac operating systems, applications, and hardware, as well as color and monochrome laser printers. He teaches classes on Mac usage, writes training and support materials for Konica Minolta, and is a Mac OS X beta tester for Apple. Dwight lives on the Gulf Coast of Alabama with his wife, Cindy, and their three beautiful children, Victoria, Devyn, and Emi. He studies theology, reads as much J. R. R. Tolkien and C. S. Lewis as possible, and roots for the Auburn Tigers in his ever-decreasing spare time.