

A World Connecting

1870–1945

Edited by

Emily S. Rosenberg

The Belknap Press of Harvard University Press

CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

LONDON, ENGLAND

2012

Contents

INTRODUCTION · 3

Emily S. Rosenberg

ONE

Leviathan 2.0: Inventing Modern Statehood

Charles S. Maier

Introduction	29
1. The World Is Weary of the Past	40
2. Reconstruction on a World Scale	93
3. The Human Zoo	153
4. States of Exception	196

TWO

Empires and the Reach of the Global

Tony Ballantyne and Antoinette Burton

Introduction	285
1. Reterritorializing Empires	306
2. Remaking the World	348
3. Global Empires, Transnational Connections	390

THREE

Migrations and Belongings

Dirk Hoerder

Introduction	435
1. A Longue-Durée Perspective	444
2. The Global and the Local	468

CONTENTS

3. Migrations, Free and Bound	491
4. Migrations during War and Depression	548
5. The Aftermath of War and Decolonization	579

FOUR

Commodity Chains in a Global Economy

Steven C. Topik and Allen Wells

Introduction	593
1. Transformations	600
2. The Sinews of Trade	628
3. Commodity Chains	685

FIVE

Transnational Currents in a Shrinking World

Emily S. Rosenberg

Introduction	815
1. Currents of Internationalism	823
2. Social Networking and Entangled Attachments	849
3. Exhibitionary Nodes	886
4. Circuits of Expertise	919
5. Spectacular Flows	960

Notes 999

Selected Bibliography 1097

Contributors 1137

Index 1139