

Wilna A.J. Meijer, Siebren Miedema,
Alma Lanser-van der Velde (Eds.)

Religious Education in a World of Religious Diversity

Waxmann 2009

Münster / New York / München / Berlin

Contents

Wilna A.J. Meijer

Religious Education in a World of Difference. Introduction7

Fedor Kozyrev

Towards a New Paradigm of RE in Eastern Europe21

Dzintra Ilishko

Pedagogical Challenges for Educating an Authentic Religious Identity and Responsible Pluralism41

Gabriel Moran

Reforming and Transforming Tradition53

Cornelia Roux, Petro du Preez and René Ferguson

Understanding Religious Education Through Human Rights Values67

D. Mitra Bhikkhu

Inter-Buddhist Religious Education in Ontario's Public Schools:
A Model for Accommodating Religious Diversity.....85

Hideko Omori

Liberal Religious Education in Japan: From the Jinzo Naruse's Perspective.....101

Leona M. English

Silence, Exile and Cunning: Postcolonial Conversations in Religious Diversity..117

Mualla Selçuk

Developing an Interfaith Dimension in RE: Theological Foundations and Educational Framework with Special Reference to Turkish Experience131

Manfred L. Pirner

The Media Culture Approach to Religious Education.
An Outline with a Focus on Interreligious Learning149

Marian de Souza

Spiritual Intelligence and its Contribution to Religious Education Leadership in a Time of Religious Pluralism and Divisiveness165

Wilna A.J. Meijer

Cultural Transmission and the Balance Between Tradition and Enlightenment.
The Example of Islam181

Siebre Miedema

Religious Education between Certainty and Uncertainty.
Towards a Pedagogy of Diversity195

List of Authors and Editors207