

Ruth Nielsen & Christina D. Tvarnø (eds.)

Scandinavian Women's Law in the 21st Century

Djøf Publishing
2012

List of Content

Preface.....	11
Chapter 1. Is there a Future for Scandinavian Women's Law? .....	15
By Eva-Maria Svensson
1. Introduction .....	15
2. The contemporary status of the field of knowledge.....	17
3. The need for research in the field .....	25
4. Conclusion – some future issues urgent to study .....	28
Chapter 2. CEDAW and the discipline of women's law:
Continuity and change in the understanding of gender and law .....	31
By Anne Hellum
1. CEDAW and the discipline of women's law: challenges in a complex social, cultural and legal landscape .....	31
2. CEDAW in the context of the women-focused research of the 1970s	35
3. Handling similarities and differences between women .....	36
3.1. A review of debates regarding similarities and differences....	37
3.2. Challenges from the south: similarities and differences.....	40
3.3. CEDAW's handling of similarities and differences – what is the trend? .....	42
3.4. The tension between equal status and equal worth.....	44
3.5. Adjustment between family and work in labour law and family law: the part-time dilemma.....	45
3.6. Between stereotypes and substantive equality: mahr and hijab	47
4. Towards a complex gender discrimination notion – intersectionality	50
4.1. Multiple discrimination in CEDAW .....	50
4.2. Women as a cross-cutting category of anti-discrimination law	52
5. Complex female identities and complex legal status.....	52
6. The porous and reflexive nature of equality and protection against discrimination.....	57

Chapter 3. The Impact of EU Law on Scandinavian Law in Matters of Gender Equality .....	63
By Ruth Nielsen.....	63
1. Introduction.....	63
2. From the Rome Treaty to the Amsterdam Treaty (1958-1999).....	65
2.1. EU level .....	65
2.2. National level.....	68
3. From the Amsterdam Treaty to the Lisbon Treaty (1999-2009).....	72
3.1. Basic concepts.....	73
3.2. The fundamental rights approach in EU gender equality law	75
4. After the Lisbon Treaty came into force (since 01/12 2009).....	76
4.1. The EU-Treaty (TEU) .....	77
4.2. The FEU-Treaty (TFEU).....	78
4.3. The Charter of Fundamental Rights.....	79
5. Changes in the sources of law .....	83
5.1. The decreasing role of preparatory works of national legislation	83
5.2. Public International Law. Monist and/or dualist theory .....	87
6. Shift in basic theories (natural law or legal positivism).....	88
7. EU law and the law of its member states as one big system .....	90
Chapter 4. Normative Cultures and Gender Cultures .....	93
By Hanne Petersen
1. Introduction.....	93
2. Nordic legal culture – an androcentric, anthropocentric and eurocentric heritage.....	94
3. Inuit, Sami and indigenous legal cultures .....	100
3.1. Mating and mythology .....	101
3.2. Climate change and indigenous action – protecting Mother Earth.....	105
4. Nordic women’s law and action – combining equality and sustainability?.....	109
5. Cultural metamorphoses – a new agenda? .....	111
6. Gender confusion and interspecies relations.....	113
Chapter 5. Gender mainstreaming from a Danish and international perspective .....	119
By Agnete Andersen
1. Introduction.....	119
2. What is gender equality? .....	120
2.1. Definition of gender equality .....	120

2.1.	Discussions on gender equality policy – what are the goals for gender equality policy? .....	121
3.	What is gender mainstreaming? .....	122
3.1.	Prerequisites for gender mainstreaming to be used .....	123
4.	Gender mainstreaming as a tool .....	124
4.1.	What can gender mainstreaming be used for .....	124
4.2.	Equality assessment of campaigns .....	127
4.3.	Gender-segregated data and statistics .....	128
5.	What is necessary if gender mainstreaming is to be used as part of operations .....	128
5.1.	Development perspectives of the inter-ministerial gender mainstreaming project. A snapshot from 2011 .....	128
6.	The Ministry of Employment .....	130
6.1.	Demands for data in the Ministry of Employment .....	131
6.2.	Gender assessment of bills in the Ministry of Employment... ..	131
7.	The purpose of the bill. What problem is to be solved and how is he current situation changed? .....	132
8.	Gender mainstreaming in Great Britain and Sweden .....	132
8.1.	Great Britain .....	132
8.2.	Sweden .....	134
8.3.	Gender mainstreaming in the Government Offices .....	134
8.4.	Support to government agencies' work with gender mainstreaming.....	134
9.	Gender mainstreaming in the ILO.....	135

Chapter 6. Wage Surveys in an Academic Area ..... 139

By Susanne Fransson

1.	Introduction .....	139
1.1.	Background .....	139
1.2.	Issues, focus and methodological aspects .....	141
1.3.	Theoretical framework .....	143
2.	Legislation for equal pay in Sweden .....	146
2.1.	Background .....	146
2.2.	In cooperation with the representatives for the employees ....	147
2.3.	Mapping wages and working conditions .....	148
2.4.	Equal wages and job evaluation .....	149
2.5.	Unwarranted wage differentials and the concept of wage discrimination .....	150
2.6.	The midwife cases and the market forces .....	151
3.	Wage surveys at the University of Gothenburg .....	152

3.1.	Introduction.....	152
3.2.	The unions at the University .....	153
3.3.	The demands of the librarians' unions .....	154
3.4.	The result of the wage survey .....	155
3.5.	The scheme design.....	158
3.6.	The evaluation process .....	158
4.	How to handle unwarranted wage differentials .....	160
4.1.	To deconstruct the gender pay structure .....	160
4.2.	Local bargaining and equal pay at the University .....	161
4.3.	The market forces as a legitimizing concept?.....	162
5.	Closing the gender pay gap at the University – a matter of co-operation or self-regulation?.....	165

Chapter 7. Discrimination against Women in the Field of Criminal

Law .....	169
------------------	------------

By Trine Baumbach

1.	Introductory remarks.....	169
2.	The notion of discrimination .....	171
3.	International initiatives on gender-based violence.....	172
4.	Judgments from the European Court of Human Rights.....	181
5.	The murder case of Denmark .....	191
6.	Concluding remarks .....	193

Chapter 8. The Woman's Share in the Reproductive Chain .....

By Pia Deleuran & Bente Holm Nielsen

1.	Introduction.....	196
2.	Perspective .....	197
3.	Human Rights Conventions.....	199
4.	The Danish Act on Parental Responsibility – an example of legislative sex- and gender blindness .....	200
5.	Sole Custody and the Obligation to give information about the Child to the Parent who has the visitation rights – another paradox .	204
6.	Awaiting the evaluation – therefore no intervention .....	205
7.	Parental Responsibility Act, lack of care for both women and infants and toddlers. ....	207
8.	Human Rights in general .....	213
9.	What is different, should not always be treated equally .....	214
10.	Motherhood Authority .....	215

Chapter 9. Balancing an individual and a structural approach towards gender equality, the question of the police hijab.....	219
By Vibeke Blaker Strand
1. The Norwegian debate regarding the police hijab .....	219
2. The protection against discrimination and central legal elements .....	222
3. A brief overview of the status of international human rights conventions in Norwegian law .....	224
4. Use of the hijab – A structural approach towards gender equality ....	227
4.1. Legal outset.....	227
4.2. Actual use of the hijab .....	228
4.3. A closer look at the legal obligation to eliminate gender stereotypes.....	231
5. Use of the hijab – An individual approach towards gender equality.	233
5.1. Legal outset.....	233
5.2. Actual use of the hijab .....	234
5.3. A closer look at the legal obligation to protect individuals against discrimination.....	237
5.3.1. CEDAW .....	237
5.3.2. ICESCR.....	240
5.3.3. The scope of the conventions .....	243
6. Use of the hijab – Balancing an individual and a structural approach towards gender equality .....	245
6.1. The dilemma .....	245
6.2. The scope of the prohibition against discrimination.....	246
7. Concluding comments regarding the relationship between law and politics .....	248
 Chapter 10. How do women directors make a difference to the work of corporate boards? .....	251
By Sabina Nielsen & Morten Huse
1. Introduction .....	251
2. The ratio of women directors and board effectiveness .....	253
3. The importance of board processes .....	254
4. Women directors' professional experiences and personal values ....	255
4.1. Women directors' values.....	256
4.2. Women directors' backgrounds .....	257
5. Equality perception .....	258
6. Adaptive behavior and critical mass.....	259
7. Conclusion .....	260

Chapter 11. Women quotas on company boards in Scandinavia and EU .....	265
By Christina D. Tvarnø
1. Introduction.....	265
2. The Norwegian legislation.....	266
3. A short view over Scandinavia.....	268
4. The Danish perspective.....	269
5. The French legislation .....	271
6. Great Britain and Lord Davies of Abersoch .....	274
7. EU – quotas from an economic perspective.....	276
8. EU – quotas from a business law perspective.....	279
9. A comparative business law perspective.....	281
10. Closing remarks .....	282