

palgrave macmillan law masters

employment law

deborah j lockton

Professor of Employment Law,
Leicester De Montfort Law School

Eighth edition

palgrave macmillan

Contents

Preface	xi
Table of cases	xiii
Table of legislation	xxxv

Part I Introduction

1	Sources and institutions of employment law	3
1.1	Common law	3
1.2	Legislation	4
1.3	Codes of practice	4
1.4	European Community law	4
1.5	The European Convention on Human Rights 1950 and the Human Rights Act 1998	5
1.6	Employment tribunals	7
1.7	The Employment Appeal Tribunal	12
1.8	Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service (ACAS)	13
1.9	Central Arbitration Committee (CAC)	15
1.10	Certification officer	15
1.11	The commissions	16
	Summary	17
	Further reading and references	17

Part II The employment relationship

2	The nature of the relationship	21
2.1	Distinction between employees and independent contractors	21
2.2	Tests for determining status	22
	Summary	30
	Exercises	30
	Further reading and references	30
3	Terms of the contract	31
3.1	Express terms	31
3.2	Collective agreements	35
3.3	Incorporation of other documents	41
3.4	Statutory statement of terms and conditions	43
3.5	Custom	45
3.6	Implied terms	46
	Summary	47
	Exercises	48
	Further reading and references	48

4	Implied duties in the contract of employment	49
4.1	Personal nature of the contract	49
4.2	Duties of the employer	51
4.3	Duties of the employee	87
	Summary	97
	Exercises	97
	Further reading and references	98

Part III Constraints on the employment relationship

5	Discrimination	101
5.1	The concept of discrimination	101
5.2	Protected characteristics	102
5.3	Prohibited conduct	107
5.4	Direct discrimination	110
5.5	Indirect discrimination	119
5.6	Duty to make reasonable adjustments	124
5.7	Harassment	127
5.8	Victimisation	130
5.9	Relationships which have ended	131
5.10	Acts of discrimination	131
5.11	Other unlawful acts	136
5.12	Occupational requirements (ORs)	138
5.13	Exceptions to the legislation	140
5.14	Enforcement and remedies	140
5.15	Part-time workers	143
5.16	Fixed-term employees	145
	Summary	147
	Exercises	147
	Further reading and references	148
6	Equality of terms	151
6.1	Introduction	151
6.2	Equality Act 2010	152
6.3	The male comparator	152
6.4	Like work	155
6.5	Work-rated equivalent	157
6.6	Work of equal value	157
6.7	Defence	160
6.8	European law and equal pay	164
	Summary	169
	Exercises	169
	Further reading and references	170
7	Employment protection	171
7.1	Introduction	171
7.2	Guaranteed week	171
7.3	Medical suspension pay	172
7.4	Maternity rights	172
7.5	Parental leave	176
7.6	Paternity leave and pay	177

7.7	Adoption leave and pay	177
7.8	Right to request flexible working	177
7.9	Right not to suffer a detriment	178
7.10	Time off provisions	181
	Summary	185
	Exercises	185
	Further reading and references	186

Part IV Termination of employment

8	Termination at common law	189
8.1	Termination by operation of law	189
8.2	Termination by agreement	191
8.3	Repudiation	193
8.4	Resignation	195
8.5	Common law dismissal	196
8.6	Reasons for dismissal	199
8.7	Procedure for dismissal	200
8.8	Remedies for wrongful dismissal	202
	Summary	203
	Exercises	204
	Further reading and references	204
9	Unfair dismissal	207
9.1	Introduction	207
9.2	Continuity of employment	212
9.3	Excluded employees	227
9.4	Has there been a dismissal?	230
9.5	Reasons for dismissal	234
9.6	The concept of reasonableness	246
9.7	Automatically unfair reasons for dismissal	263
9.8	Dismissal during a strike, lock-out or other industrial action	270
9.9	Remedies for unfair dismissal	274
	Stop Press	279
	Summary	279
	Exercises	280
	Further reading and references	281
10	Redundancy	283
10.1	Introduction	283
10.2	Qualification to claim	283
10.3	Definition of redundancy	284
10.4	Misconduct and redundancy	289
10.5	Suitable alternative employment	289
10.6	Trial period in new employment	291
10.7	Lay-off and short-time working	291
10.8	Redundancy compensation	291
10.9	Consultation	292
	Summary	297
	Exercises	297
	Further reading and references	298

11	Duties of ex-employees	299
11.1	Introduction	299
11.2	Express/implied duty of fidelity	299
11.3	Restraint of trade covenants	299
11.4	Reasonable between the parties	301
11.5	Reasonable in the public interest	302
11.6	Enforceability	304
11.7	Enforcement	306
	Summary	308
	Exercises	308
	Further reading and references	309

Part V Trade unions and the law of industrial action

12	Trade unions	313
12.1	Introduction	313
12.2	Status of trade unions	314
12.3	Listing	316
12.4	Independent trade unions	316
12.5	Recognition of trade unions	317
12.6	The political fund	322
12.7	Trade union accounts	324
12.8	The rule book	325
12.9	Inter-union disputes	326
12.10	Trade union amalgamations	327
12.11	Trade union elections	328
12.12	The right to information	330
12.13	Financial assistance	333
12.14	The closed shop	334
	Summary	336
	Exercises	336
	Further reading and references	337
13	The rights of trade union members	339
13.1	Introduction	339
13.2	Enforcement of the union rule book	339
13.3	Exclusion and expulsion	341
13.4	Discipline of union members	344
13.5	The Certification Officer	346
13.6	Action short of dismissal	347
	Summary	350
	Exercises	350
	Further reading and references	351
14	Industrial action	353
14.1	Introduction	353
14.2	Industrial action and the contract of employment	355
14.3	Industrial action and the economic torts	358
14.4	The impact of EU law	367
14.5	Statutory immunities	367

14.6	Trade union liability	375
14.7	Loss of trade union immunity	376
14.8	Picketing	380
14.9	Remedies	385
	Summary	387
	Exercises	387
	Further reading and references	388
	Index	389