

Criminology

Tim Newburn

WILLAN PUBLISHING

Detailed contents

Part 1 Understanding Crime and Criminology

1	Understanding crime and criminology	2	United States: uniform crime reports	52
	What is criminology?	4	Assessing official statistics	53
	An interdisciplinary subject	5	The impact of legislation	55
	Defining criminology	5	Understanding attrition	56
	Understanding crime	6	Limitations of official statistics	60
	Crime and the criminal law	8	Victimization surveys	61
	Crime as a social construct	8	The British Crime Survey	62
	Historical variation	9	Local crime surveys	65
	Crime and politics	11	Other victimization surveys	67
	End of the bipartisan consensus	12	Assessing victimization surveys	67
	Managerialism	13	Comparing official statistics and victimization surveys	68
	Centralisation	13	Crime trends	69
	Penal populism	14	Data on offenders	76
	Criminology in Britain	15	Self-report studies	77
	Further reading	18	Assessing the self-report method	78
2	Crime and punishment in history	20	Questions for further discussion	79
	Introduction	22	Further reading	80
	The emergence of a modern criminal justice system	23	Websites	80
	Policing	23	4	Crime and the media
	The 'new police'	26	Introduction	84
	Resistance and reform	27	Academic study of the media	84
	Into the twentieth century	29	Media representations of crime	85
	The victim and prosecution	30	Newsworthiness	85
	The formalisation of the prosecution process	31	The crime content in the media	86
	The courts	33	Violent crime in the news	88
	The decline of the profit motive	33	Are the media criminogenic?	90
	Punishment	35	Media effects	92
	Capital punishment	35	Media and fear of crime	93
	Transportation	37	Moral panics	94
	Imprisonment	38	Mods and rockers	95
	Probation	40	Drug use and deviancy
	Crime and violence in history	42	amplification	97
	Levels of crime	42	Mugging	98
	Perceptions of crime	43	Criticisms of moral panic theory	99
	Questions for further discussion	46	Policing and the media	100
	Further reading	46	The relationship between the police and the media	101
	Websites	47	The representation of policing	102
3	Crime data and crime trends	48	Crime and the internet	104
	Introduction	50	Policing cybercrime	107
	Measuring crime	50	Representing terror	107
	Official statistics	51	Questions for further discussion	109
	England and Wales: criminal statistics	52	Further reading	109
			Websites	110

Part 2 Understanding Crime: theories and concepts

5 Classicism and positivism 112

Introduction	114
Classical criminology	114
Beccaria	116
Jeremy Bentham	117
The impact of classicism	118
Positivism and criminology	120
Defining positivism	121
Cesare Lombroso	122
Ferri and Garofalo	125
Charles Goring	126
Somatyping	127
The impact of positivism	128
Questions for further discussion	129
Further reading	129
Websites	129

6 Biological positivism 130

Introduction	132
Genetic factors	132
Eugenics and 'feeble-mindedness'	133
Twin studies	135
Adoption	136
Chromosomal anomalies	137
Genetics and offending	138
Biochemical factors	138
Central nervous system	138
ADHD and brain dysfunction	139
Neurotransmitters	140
Laterality	141
Autonomic nervous system	141
Hormones/testosterone	141
Nutrition	142
Assessing biological positivism	143
Questions for further discussion	144
Further reading	144
Websites	144

7 Psychological positivism 146

Introduction	148
Psychoanalysis and crime	148
Bowlby and maternal deprivation	150
Learning theories	151
Differential association	151
Operant learning	152
Social learning theory	153
Rational choice	156
Routine activity theory	157
Cognitive theories	157
Yochelson and Samenow	157
Piaget, Kohlberg, moral development and offending	159

Eysenck's biosocial theory	161
Intelligence and offending	163
Assessing psychological positivism	165
Questions for further discussion	166
Further reading	166
Websites	166

8 Durkheim, anomie and strain 168

Introduction	170
Durkheim and criminology	170
Durkheim and social change	171
Durkheim, suicide and anomie	172
Assessing Durkheim	174
Merton and anomie	174
Anomie and the 'American dream'	175
Assessing Merton's anomie theory	178
Later strain theory	180
Cloward and Ohlin	180
General strain theory	181
Messner and Rosenfeld	182
Assessing strain theory	183
Questions for further discussion	184
Further reading	185
Websites	185

9 The Chicago School, culture and subcultures 186

Introduction	188
The Chicago School	188
Social ecology	190
Chicago School and crime	190
The zonal hypothesis	191
Shaw and McKay: cultural transmission	192
Chicago Area Project	193
Differential association	193
Differential reinforcement	194
Assessing the Chicago School	195
Cultures and subcultures	196
Albert Cohen	197
Cloward and Ohlin	198
David Matza	199
Subcultural theory	199
American subcultural theory	199
British subcultural theory	201
Assessing subcultural theory	204
Questions for further discussion	207
Further reading	207
Websites	207

10 Labelling and subcultural theory 208

Introduction	210
The emergence of labelling theory	213

Primary and secondary deviance	213	13 Realist criminology	262
Becker's outsiders	214	Introduction	264
Moral entrepreneurship	214	Left realism	264
Becoming a marijuana user	215	The critique of 'left idealism'	264
Stigma	217	The nature of left realism	266
Self-fulfilling prophecy	218	What is to be done about law and order?	267
Deviancy amplification	218	Left realism and method	267
Folk devils and moral panics	218	Assessing left realism	268
Braithwaite and 'shaming'	219	Right realism	270
Assessing labelling theories	220	'Thinking About Crime'	270
Questions for further discussion	223	Distinguishing left and right realism	270
Further reading	224	Wilson and Herrnstein	272
Websites	224	Murray and the 'underclass'	273
11 Control theories	226	Assessing right realism	275
Introduction	228	Questions for further discussion	276
Reckless's containment theory	229	Further reading	276
Inner containment	230	Websites	276
Neutralisation and drift theory	230	14 Contemporary classicism	278
Drift	231	Introduction	280
Social bond theory	231	Rational choice theory	280
Four elements of the social bond	232	Clarke and Cornish	281
Testing social bond theory	233	Bounded rationality	282
Gottfredson and Hirschi's general theory of crime	234	Crime scripts	283
Low self-control	234	Routine activity theory	286
Assessing the general theory of crime	237	Routine activity and crime trends	286
Tittle's control-balance theory	238	Routine activity theory elaborated	288
Relating control-balance to crime	239	Situational crime prevention	290
Assessing control theory	241	Defensible space and problem-oriented policing	290
Questions for further discussion	242	Problem-oriented policing	292
Further reading	242	Crime and opportunity	292
Websites	242	Crime science	294
12 Radical and critical criminology	244	Assessing contemporary classicism	295
Introduction	246	Questions for discussion	297
Crime and the underdog	246	Further reading	297
Marx and Marxism	246	Websites	297
Willem Bonger	248	15 Feminist criminology	298
American radicalism	250	Introduction	300
Vold and criminalisation	250	Early criminology and the female offender	301
Austin Turk	250	Lombroso and Ferrero	301
William Chambliss	251	W.I. Thomas and Otto Pollak	302
From conflict to peacemaking	252	Sociological criminology and the continued invisibility of women	303
Radical criminology in Britain	254	The development of modern feminist criminology	305
The new criminology	255	Female emancipation and crime	305
Contemporary radical criminology	256	Carol Smart and feminist criminology	306
Zemology	258	Contemporary feminist criminology	308
Assessing radical criminology	258	Understanding women's
Teleology	258
Determinism	259
Idealism	259
Questions for further discussion	260
Further reading	260
Websites	260

involvement in crime	309	Physical impact	354
Women, prison and punishment	311	Behavioural impact	354
The nature of women's		Emotional/psychological impact	354
imprisonment	311	Financial impact	355
The criminalisation of women	313	Fear of crime	355
A feminist methodology?	313	Victims policy	358
Feminist victimology	314	Criminal injuries compensation	358
Assessing feminist criminology	314	Court-ordered compensation	359
Questions for further discussion	316	Feminism and 'secondary victimization'	359
Further reading	316	Child abuse	361
Websites	317	Victim support	363
16 Late modernity, governmentality		Victims' rights?	364
and risk	318	One stop shop and victim
The transition to late modernity	320	statements	365
Surveillance	320	Rebalancing the criminal justice
Changes in property relations	321	system?	365
A new regulatory state?	322	Questions for further discussion	367
Foucault and governmentality	323	Further reading	367
Discipline and Punish	324	Websites	368
Governmentality theory	325	18 White-collar and corporate crime	370
The dispersal of discipline	327	Introduction	372
The discipline of Disney World	328	Edwin Sutherland and white-collar
Risk and the new culture of control	329	crime	373
Garland and the culture of control	330	Exploring white-collar crime	377
Risk, crime and criminal justice	333	Theft at work	378
Assessing governmentality, the new		Fraud	378
penology and risk	334	Employment offences	380
Governmentality	336	Consumer offences	381
The new penology	336	Food offences	382
Risk	337	Environmental crime	383
Questions for further discussion	338	State-corporate crime	384
Further reading	338	Explaining white-collar and
Websites	338	corporate crime	385
Part 3 Understanding Crime:		Differential association	385
types and trends	339	Self-control	385
17 Victims, victimization and victimology	340	Neutralisation	385
Understanding victims and		Critical theory	386
victimology	342	Shaming	387
The victim of crime	342	Understanding white-collar crime	388
The emergence of victimology	344	White-collar offenders	388
Victim-precipitation	345	Victims of white-collar crime	390
Victim-blaming	346	The extent of white-collar crime	393
Approaches to victimology	346	The impact of white-collar crime	394
Positivist victimology	346	Understanding impact: the
Radical victimology	347	qualitative dimension	395
Critical victimology	347	Controlling white-collar crime	397
The nature of victimization	348	Regulating white-collar crime	399
The extent of victimization	348	Self regulation	401
Repeat victimization	349	Questions for further discussion	402
Victimization and the vulnerable	351	Further reading	402
Victimization and the homeless	351	Websites	403
Victimization and the elderly	352	19 Organised crime	404
The impact of victimization	353	Defining organised crime	406

Traditional forms of organised crime	408	volume crime	469
The Mafia	408	Questions for further discussion	469
Triads	409	Further reading	470
The Yakuza	409	Websites	470
Organised crime in America	409
The organisation of organised crime	411	21 Drugs and alcohol	472
An alien conspiracy theory	413	Introduction	474
The ethnic succession thesis	413	What are drugs?	475
How organised was American organised crime?	414	Changing official attitudes toward drugs	477
Organised crime in Britain	417	Who uses drugs?	480
Transnational organised crime	420	Trends in drug use	482
Human trafficking and migrant smuggling	421	The normalisation debate	482
Drugs trafficking	425	Drugs and crime	484
Transnational crime control	429	Drug use causes crime	485
Transnational policing	429	Crime causes drug use	486
Europol	430	A common cause?	486
Understanding organised crime	431	A reciprocal relationship?	487
Questions for further discussion	433	No causal relationship?	487
Further reading	433	Drugs and criminal justice	488
Websites	433	Drug courts, DTOs and coerced treatment	489
		Drug testing	491
20 Violent and property crime	434	Drugs and policing	493
Understanding violent crime	436	Lambeth cannabis experiment	496
Types of violent crime	438	Alcohol	498
Homicide	438	Patterns of consumption	498
Trends in homicide	439	Young people and alcohol	504
Homicide offenders	439	Young people, alcohol and moral panic	503
Victims of homicide	441	Binge drinking	504
Motive and relationship	442	Alcohol, crime and criminal justice	504
Use of weapons	442	The legal situation	504
Homicide and social status	444	Alcohol and crime	505
Serial killers	444	Costs of alcohol misuse and alcohol-related crime	508
Robbery	446	Government alcohol policy	508
Armed robbery	446	Drugs, alcohol and crime	511
Street robbery	448	Questions for further discussion	512
Sexual offences	450	Further reading	512
Stalking	451	Websites	512
Monitoring sex offenders	453
Violent crime and weapons	454	Part 4 Understanding Criminal Justice	513
Trends in violent crime	456
Contemporary trends	458	22 Penology and punishment	514
Property crime	458	What is punishment?	516
Trends in property crime	459	Utilitarian or consequentialist approaches	518
Burglary	460	Deterrence	518
Trends in burglary	460	General deterrence	518
Distraction burglary	462	Individual deterrence	519
Burglars on burglary	462	Rehabilitation	520
Crimes against retail and manufacturing premises	463	Incapacitation	521
Car crime	465	Retributivism	524
Injuries and deaths on the road	465
Measuring car crime	466
Joyriding	467
Thinking about violent and

Just deserts	524	Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Prisons for England and Wales (HMIP)	555
The sociology of punishment	527	Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Probation for England and Wales (HMI Probation)	555
Emile Durkheim	527	Prisons and Probation Ombudsman	556
Max Weber	529	Independent Police Complaints Commission	556
Marxism	530	Politics and criminal justice reform	556
Norbert Elias	531	Understanding criminal justice	557
Michel Foucault	532	Adversarial versus inquisitorial systems	557
The impact of Foucault	534	Due process versus crime control	559
Conclusion: an era of mass incarceration?	535	Questions for further discussion	561
Questions for further discussion	537	Further reading	562
Further reading	538	Websites	562
Websites	538
23 Understanding criminal justice	540	24 Crime prevention and community safety	564
Government and criminal justice	542	Defining crime prevention	566
Home Office	543	Crime prevention as a policy issue	566
Home Secretary	544	'Five Towns' and 'Safer Cities'	568
Ministry of Justice	545	Neighbourhood Watch	568
Office of the Attorney General	545	From crime prevention to community safety	569
The criminal justice system	546	Crime and Disorder Act 1998	570
Major agencies, organisations and actors	546	From community safety to crime reduction	570
The police	546	Reviewing the Crime and Disorder Act	573
Crown Prosecution Service	546	Anti-social behaviour	574
Probation Service	546	Broken Windows	575
Youth Offending Teams	546	The anti-social behaviour and respect agendas	576
Prisons	546	Crime prevention in practice	577
Legal Services Commission (LSC)	546	Situational crime prevention	578
Criminal courts	546	Displacement	582
Criminal Cases Review Commission	547	Social and community crime prevention	583
Crime and Disorder Reduction Partnerships	547	Criminality prevention	583
Criminal Injuries Compensation Authority (CICA)	547	Risk-focused prevention	584
Forensic Science Service (FSS)	547	The Perry Pre-School Project	584
Parole Board	548	Cognitive-behavioural interventions with young people	585
Volunteers in the criminal justice system	548	Community approaches	585
Is it really a system?	549	Operation Ceasefire	585
The criminal justice process	550	Mentoring	587
Fixed-penalty notices	551	Analysis for crime prevention	588
Expenditure and employment	551	Hot spots	589
Management and oversight in criminal justice	553	Repeat victimization	589
New public management	553	Kirkholt Burglary Prevention Project	591
Youth Justice Board	554
Inspectorates	555
Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary for England, Wales and Northern Ireland (HMIC)	555
Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Court Administration (HMICA)	555
Her Majesty's Crown Prosecution Service Inspectorate (HMCPSI)	555

Questions for further discussion	593	Offending while on bail	648
Further reading	594	Mode of trial decision	649
Websites	594	Defendants' rights	650
25 The police and policing	596	Pleas and bargaining	651
The organisation of policing	598	Charge bargaining	651
Understanding policing	602	Plea bargaining	652
What do the police do?	602	Evidence	653
Criminal investigation	603	Disclosure	653
National Intelligence Model (NIM)	604	Exclusion	654
Investigation and forensics	605	Appeals	654
Police powers	606	Miscarriages of justice	655
Stop and search	607	Criminal Cases Review
Arrest	607	Commission (CCRC)	656
Detention at the police station	608	Questions for further discussion	657
Right of silence	610	Further reading	657
Models of policing	611	Websites	657
Community policing	612	27 Sentencing and non-custodial
Problem-oriented policing	612	penalties	658
Intelligence-led policing	612	Introduction	660
A brief history of policing	613	Types of sentence	660
Emergence of the 'new police'	613	Discharges	661
The Royal Commission on the		Fines and other financial penalties	661
Police	614	Community punishment	661
Problems of legitimacy	615	The Community Rehabilitation
Centralisation	616	Order	661
Key themes in policing	617	The Community Punishment
Police culture	617	Order	661
Zero-tolerance policing	619	The Community Order	662
Police corruption	622	The suspended sentence of
The causes of police corruption	623	imprisonment	662
Police governance	626	Sentencing policy	663
Plural policing	629	The Criminal Justice Act 1991	664
A revolution in policing?	632	Sentencing reform after the 1991
Questions for further discussion	634	Act	666
Further reading	634	The Crime (Sentences) Act 1997	667
Websites	634	Sentencing reform under New
26 Criminal courts and the court process	636	Labour	667
Introduction	636	The Auld Review of Criminal
The Crown Prosecution Service (CPS)	638	Courts	668
Sufficient evidence	638	The Halliday Review	668
The public interest	639	Justice For All	669
Downgrading of charges	640	Criminal Justice Act 2003	669
Discontinuance	641	Trends in non-custodial sentencing	670
Magistrates' courts	641	Probation	673
The magistracy	641	Punishment in the community	674
The Crown Court	642	Crime, Justice and Protecting the
The judiciary	643	Public	675
Juries	644	New Labour and probation	676
Pre-trial decisions	645	The probation service and
Bail and remand	645	'what works'	676
Bail	646	A national probation service	677
Remand	647	The Carter Review and the emergence of NOMS	678
		Conclusion	680

Questions for further discussion	680	Young people and imprisonment	737
Further reading	681	Community alternatives	739
Websites	681	Referral orders and restorative youth justice	739
28 Prisons and imprisonment	682	Young people, crime and justice	740
The rise of the prison	684	Questions for further discussion	741
Imprisonment in Britain	685	Further reading	741
Prison security	686	Websites	741
Strangeways and Woolf	689
Trends in imprisonment	690	30 Restorative justice	742
Imprisonment and penal politics	694	Introduction	744
International trends	695	Conflicts as property	744
Capital punishment	698	Criminal justice and restorative justice	746
The prison system	700	Defining restorative justice	747
Types of prison	700	The objectives of restorative justice	748
Private prisons	701	Victim involvement	748
Life on the inside	702	Community involvement	749
Prisoners	703	Offender reintegration	750
Incarceration and social exclusion	705	Types of restorative justice	751
Violence in prison	705	Court-based restitutive and reparative measures	751
Prison officers	707	Victim-offender mediation (VOM)	752
Release from prison	709	Family group conferencing	753
Governance, accountability and human rights	709	Healing and sentencing circles	756
Independent inspection	710	Healing circles	756
Grievance or complaints procedures	710	Sentencing circles	756
Human rights and imprisonment	711	Citizens' panels and community boards	757
Questions for further discussion	713	Assessing restorativeness	758
Further reading	713	The limits of restorative justice?	760
Websites	713	Restorative justice and corporate crime	760
29 Youth crime and youth justice	714	Restorative justice and domestic violence	761
Youth crime	717	Assessing restorative justice	763
Persistent young offenders	718	Questions for further discussion	767
Trends in youth crime	720	Further reading	767
Ethnic minority youth and crime	720	Websites	767
Drug use and crime	721
Victimization	724
Youth justice	725
Childhood and punishment	725
Emergence of a juvenile justice system	726
The tide turns	727
The punitive shift	728
The rise of managerialism	730
A new youth justice?	731
Youth Offending Teams (YOTs)	731
Non-custodial penalties	731
Anti-social behaviour	732
Referral orders	733
Youth Offender Panels (YOPs)	734
Contemporary youth justice	734
Anti-social behaviour	735
Criticisms of the anti-social behaviour agenda	735
		Part 5 Critical Issues in Criminology	769
		31 Race, crime and justice	770
		Introduction	772
		Sources of data	772
		Ethnicity and victimization	773
		Victimization and risk	773
		Fear of crime	774
		Racist hate crimes	774
		Racist offenders	778
		Community, conflict and cohesion	779
		Ethnicity and offending	780
		Self-reported offending	781

'Anti-social behaviour'	783	History of psychology and criminology	839
Drug use	784	Individual factors in crime	840
Experience of the criminal justice system	785	Risk factors and crime	841
Stop and search	785	Individual factors	841
Racism and stop and search	787	Family factors	841
Ethnicity and policing	788	Socioeconomic, peer, school and community factors	842
From Scarman to Lawrence	789	Developmental or life course criminology	843
Cautioning, arrest and sentencing	791	Sampson and Laub	843
Ethnicity and imprisonment	793	Moffitt's theory of offending types	844
Treatment in custody	794	Mental disorder and crime	845
Deaths in custody	795	The prevalence of mental disorders	845
Views of the criminal justice system	796	Mental disorder and offending	846
Minority representation in the criminal justice system	798	Understanding mental disorder and crime	846
Questions for further discussion	801	Policing and psychology	847
Further reading	801	Offender profiling	847
Websites	802	Assessing profiling	850
32 Gender, crime and justice	804	Legal and ethical issues	851
Female and male offending	806	Interrogation	852
Reasons for offending	808	Confessions	853
Women and the criminal justice process	810	Lying and lie detection	854
Cautioning, arrest and prosecution	810	Statement validity analysis	856
The use of custody	811	The courtroom and psychology	856
Women in prison	813	Recall/eyewitness testimony	856
Mothers in prison	815	Vulnerable witnesses	857
Understanding women and criminal justice	817	Children as witnesses	858
Women in the criminal justice system: the future	818	Juries	859
Victimization	818	Juries and evidence	859
Fear of crime	819	Juries and other factors	860
Violence against women	819	Jury composition	860
Domestic violence	820	Decision-making	861
The perpetrators	821	Treatment of offenders and 'What Works'	861
Policing rape and domestic violence	822	Cognitive skills programmes	862
Policy changes	823	Questions for further discussion	864
Attrition	825	Further reading	864
Women's role in social control	828	Websites	864
Women in the police	828	34 Globalisation, terrorism and human rights	866
Women in the probation service	830	Globalisation	868
Women as prison officers	830	Globalisation and criminology	869
Women and the legal professions	830	Criminalising migration	869
Masculinities, men and victimization	831	Terrorism	871
Male victimization	832	What is terrorism?	871
Conclusion	833	Terrorism in Britain	872
Questions for further discussion	834	The new international terrorism	873
Further reading	834	Special powers for special circumstances?	874
Websites	834	Control orders and the PATRIOT Act	875
33 Criminal and forensic psychology	836
Psychology and criminology	838

Terrorism and the 'New Wars'	875	Random (or probability) sampling	912
Private military industry	876	Stratified sampling	912
Privatised security in Iraq	877	Quota sampling	913
State crime	878	Purposive sampling	913
Genocide	879	Convenience sampling	913
Cambodia	880	Snowball sampling	913
Rwanda	880	Statistics	914
Bosnia	881	Descriptive statistics	914
War as crime and war crimes	882	Numerical and categorical data	915
Human Rights	883	Normal distribution	916
Origins of human rights	883	Correlation	916
Human rights in the twentieth century	884	Probability and significance	916
Human rights in Britain	886	Controversy: evaluation and experimentation	917
The Human Rights Act 1998	886	Experimental methods	917
The impact of the Human Rights Act	888	Quasi-experimental methods	918
Criminology and human rights	890	Evaluation research	918
Dealing with human rights abuses	891	Questions for further discussion	921
Advantages and disadvantages of different tribunals	892	Further reading	921
Questions for further discussion	892	Websites	922
Further reading	893
Websites	893
Part 6 Doing Criminology	895
35 Understanding criminological research	896	36 Doing criminological research	924
Introduction	898	Introduction	926
Research methods	898	Choosing a topic	926
Surveys	899	Doing a literature review	929
Questionnaire design	901	Selecting methods	931
Interviews	903	Theory and method	931
Focus groups	905	Hypothetico-deductive theory	931
Ethnography	907	Grounded theory	932
Documentary analysis	910	Negotiating access	933
Case studies	911	Research governance/ethics	935
Sampling	911	Pilot research	936
		Writing	937
		Beginning to write	938
		Write clearly	938
		Decent prose	938
		Plagiarism	940
		Time management	940
		Further reading	942