

Social Class and Mental Illness in Northern Europe

Edited by Petteri Pietikäinen and Jesper Vaczy Kragh

Contents

Introduction	1
---------------------	----------

PETTERI PIETIKÄINEN AND JESPER VACZY KRAGH

PART I

Social class and mental health care	17
--	-----------

1 Pity the poor patient: the indigent mentally ill in late 19th- and early 20th-century Finland	19
--	-----------

PETTERI PIETIKÄINEN

2 Mental illness and social class in Northern Norway, 1900–1940	38
--	-----------

ÅSHILD FAUSE

3 Citizens, patients or paupers? Class and mental health in post-war Britain	55
---	-----------

VICKY LONG

4 After patient murder. Asylum psychiatry in the four German occupation zones after World War II	77
---	-----------

MAIKE ROTZOLL

5 Children on the move: psychiatric encounters with child evacuees returning to post-war Finland	91
---	-----------

TUOMAS LAINE-FRIGREN

PART II

Psychiatry, crime, and deviance 113

- 6 Social class and opiate addiction in European psychiatry, 1870–1955 115

JESPER VACZY KRAGH

- 7 Psychopaths, querulants, and class: on controversial diagnoses, money, norms, and networks in Sweden in the 1930s and 1940s 133

ANNIKA BERG

- 8 Unsound of mind: crime, madness, and forensic psychiatry in Denmark and Finland in the first decades of the 20th century 153

JESPER VACZY KRAGH AND PETTERI PIETIKÄINEN

- 9 The ideal of the respectable woman: social class and femininity in forensic assessments of female patients at Østmarka Asylum, 1938–1969 175

MARIA ANTONIE SÆTHER

- 10 Liberating the deviants: how to change the politics of social control – a case study from Finland, 1967–1971 194

KATARIINA PARHI AND MIKKO MYLLYKANGAS

- Index* 215