

The fourth edition of this highly regarded textbook provides an authoritative and engaging introduction to European Union politics. It has been comprehensively revised and updated in light of recent events within the EU, including the aftermath of the Lisbon Treaty and the economic crisis in the Euro area. With attractive and helpful learning features and extensive online support, European Union Politics is an ideal starting point for those wishing to understand the workings of this ever evolving subject.

New to this edition:

- Extensive revision taking account of the economic crisis in the EU, including a new chapter dedicated to this topic
- New chapters including governance in the EU, and democracy and legitimacy in the EU
- Analysis of the effects of the Lisbon Treaty

Michelle Cini is Professor of European Politics at the University of Bristol.

Nieves Pérez-Solórzano Borragán is Senior Lecturer in European Politics at the University of Bristol.