

EVALUATING ENVIRONMENT IN INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Edited by Juha I. Uitto

Forewords by Yolanda Kakabadse and Indran A. Naidoo

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

earthscan
from Routledge

*Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.*

CONTENTS

Foreword by Yolanda Kakabadse, President, World Wildlife Fund International	ix
Foreword by Indran A. Naidoo, Director, Independent Evaluation Office, United Nations Development Programme	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
List of contributors	xv
Acronyms	xxiii

SECTION I
Introduction and conceptual background	1
1. Evaluating environment in international development Juha I. Uitto	3
2. A global public goods perspective on environment and poverty Rob D. van den Berg	17
3. Evaluation and the reconciliation of global environmental benefits with local development Howard Macdonald Stewart	37

SECTION II

Approaches and challenges to evaluating environment in national development 43

4. Evaluation at the nexus: principles for evaluating sustainable development interventions 45
Andy Rowe
5. Assessing progress towards impacts in environmental programmes using the field review of outcomes to impacts methodology 62
David Todd and Rob Craig
6. Meta-evaluation of climate mitigation evaluations 87
Christine Wörten
7. Small grants, big impacts: aggregation challenges 105
Sulan Chen and Juha I. Uitto
8. A programme theory approach to evaluating normative environmental interventions 123
Segbedzi Norgbey and Michael Spilsbury

SECTION III

Lessons from international cooperation 149

9. Evaluating the poverty–environment nexus in Africa 151
Michael Stocking
10. Evaluating disaster risk management in the face of climate change 172
Vijayalakshmi Vadivelu
11. Multiple actors and confounding factors: evaluating impact in complex social-ecological systems 194
Aaron Zazueta and Jeneen R. Garcia
12. Evaluating international support for transboundary aquifer management programmes 208
Alan Fox

13. Green economy performance of environmental initiatives in Latin America and the Caribbean Jyotsna Puri, Ronal Gainza-Carmenates and Simon Lobach	219
14. Evaluating environment in United Nations Development Programme country programming: evidence from China and India Juha I. Uitto	246
15. Opportunities and challenges of evaluating environment joint programmes: lessons from the Millennium Development Goal Achievement Fund Nurit Bodemann-Ostow and Regina Gallego Piñero	256
16. The Consultative Group on International Agricultural Research approach to impact evaluation of environment and natural resources management Roberto La Rovere	277
Index	289