

The Politics of the Presidency

REVISED EIGHTH EDITION

Joseph A. Pika, University of Delaware

John Anthony Maltese, University of Georgia

Los Angeles | London | New Delhi
Singapore | Washington DC

Contents

Tables and Figures xi

Preface xiii

I. THE PRESIDENT AND THE PUBLIC

1. The Changing Presidency 1

The Scope of Presidential Power 1

Expansion of the Presidency 21

Presidential Culture 28

Conclusion: The Changeable, Political Presidency 31

Suggested Readings 32

Resources on the Web 32

Notes 32

2. Election Politics 37

Evolution of the Selection Process 38

Defining the Pool of Eligibles 44

Competing for the Nomination 50

The National Convention 58

The General Election 61

Validation 81

Transitions to Governing 84

Suggested Readings 85

Resources on the Web 86

Notes 86

3. Public Politics 93

Public Attitudes toward the Presidency 95

Rallying Public Support 105

The President and the Media 122

Conclusion: The Permanent Campaign 136

Suggested Readings 137

Notes 137

- 4. Presidential Character and Performance 146
 - Determinants and Evaluations of Performance 148
 - What Manner of Person? 154
 - Psychological Characteristics of U.S. Presidents 162
 - Management Styles of Modern Presidents 169
 - Understanding Presidents: George W. Bush and Barack Obama 174
 - Conclusion: Seeking Presidential Success 191
 - Suggested Readings 192
 - Resources on the Web 193
 - Notes 193

II. THE PRESIDENT AND THE GOVERNMENT

- 5. Legislative Politics 201
 - Three Confrontations in Interbranch Relations 201
 - Development of the President's Legislative Role 206
 - The Presidential–Congressional Relationship 209
 - The President's Formal Legislative Powers 217
 - The President's Informal Legislative Influence 222
 - Explaining Presidents' Legislative Success 232
 - Conclusion 242
 - Suggested Readings 242
 - Notes 243
- 6. Executive Politics 250
 - The President as Executive 253
 - The President and the Executive Branch 255
 - The President and the Cabinet 265
 - The Vice President 272
 - Presidential Control of the Bureaucracy 274
 - Presidential Management of the Bureaucracy 286
 - Conclusion 294
 - Suggested Readings 295
 - Resources on the Web 295
 - Notes 295
- 7. Judicial Politics 304
 - Presidential Appointment of Federal Judges 305
 - Other Presidential Influences on the Federal Courts 325
 - Judicial Oversight of Presidential Action 333
 - Conclusion 335
 - Suggested Readings 335
 - Notes 336

III. THE PRESIDENT AND PUBLIC POLICY

8. The Politics of Domestic Policy 341

- The Domestic Policy Process 346
- The Domestic Policy Environment 357
- The Domestic Policy Apparatus 361
- Conclusion 370
- Suggested Readings 373
- Notes 373

9. The Politics of Economic Policy 378

- Macroeconomic Policy 382
- Microeconomic Policy 388
- Presidents and the Economy: 1933–2012 392
- The Politics of Macroeconomic Policymaking 400
- The Economic Subpresidency 405
- Presidents and Economic Policy Coordination 416
- Congress's Role in Macroeconomic Policy 420
- Conclusion 423
- Suggested Readings 425
- Notes 425

10. The Politics of National Security Policy 430

- Issues in National Security Policy: Search for a New Consensus 434
- The Problem with National Security Policymaking 445
- The President, Congress, and National Security 445
- Organizing and Managing National Security 460
- Conclusion 468
- Suggested Readings 469
- Notes 470

11. The Challenges of a Second-Term President 478

- Challenges Confronting Obama in His Second Term 480
- Obama's Act II: Lingering Ambitions Amid Lower Expectations 494
- Notes 502

Appendices 505

Index 520

Credits 556

Tables and Figures

TABLES

1-1	Models of Executive Considered by the Constitutional Convention	12
2-1	Principal Experience of In- and Out-Party Candidates before Gaining Nomination, 1932–2012	47
2-2	Party Identification, 1952–2008 (Percentage)	70
2-3	Group Voting Patterns in Presidential Elections, Selected Years (Percentage)	72
2-4	Participation of General Public in Presidential Elections, 1932–2012	80
3-1	Losses by President's Party in Midterm Elections, 1862–2010	120
4-1	Ratings of U.S. Presidents	152
4-2	Pessen's Analysis of Presidential Social Class	156
5-1	Partisan Control of the Presidency and Congress, 1933–2014	214
5-2	Presidential Vetoes of Bills, 1933–2012	220
6-1	Backgrounds of Barack Obama's Cabinet through 2013	269
6-2	Executive Orders, 1969–January 19, 2013	279
7-1	Race, Ethnicity, and Gender of Appointments to the U.S. District Courts and Courts of Appeals, by Administration (Nixon through March 2013 of Obama)	314
7-2	Failed Supreme Court Nominees	322
9-1	Inflation, Unemployment, and Federal Budget Deficits/Surpluses, 1970–2012	394
9-2	Chairs of the Council of Economic Advisers, 1953–2013	406
9-3	Directors of the Budget Bureau/Office of Management and Budget, 1953–2013	409
9-4	Secretaries of the Treasury, 1953–2013	412
9-5	Chairs of the Federal Reserve Board, 1951–2013	414
10-1	Presidential Use of Force Reported in Compliance with the War Powers Resolution, 1969–2012	437
10-2	Treaties and Executive Agreements Concluded by the United States, 1789–1999	449
10-3	International Agreements, 1969–2011	450
10-4	Duration of U.S. Wars since 1900	455

FIGURES

- 2-1 The 2012 Presidential Contest Timeline 44
- 2-2 State Size by Number of Electoral Votes, 2012 66
- 3-1 Presidential Approval, 1961–March 2013 108
- 3-2 Presidential Addresses, 1933–2011 (Yearly Averages for First Three Years of First Term) 110
- 3-3 Days of Political Travel by Presidents, 1933–2011 (Yearly Averages for First Three Years of First Term) 111
- 4-1 Relationship of Background to Performance 149
- 4-2 Barber's Typology of Character 165
- 4-3 Barber's Characterization of Modern Presidents 167
- 10-1 Presidential Management Styles and the National Security Assistant's Roles 462
- 11-1 Party Polarization 1879–2012 491