

One World Health

An overview of global health

Nigel Crisp

Honorary Professor at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine,
Senior Fellow at the Institute for Healthcare Improvement and Chair of the Kings'
Partners Advisory Board on Global Health. Formerly Distinguished Visiting Fellow at Harvard School of Public Health and Regent's Lecturer at the University of California, Berkeley

With regional Commentaries from

Maureen Bisognano, Susana Edjang, Octavio Gómez-Dantés,
Manu Raj Mathur, Srinath Reddy, Enrique Ruelas and Guo Yan

CRC Press

Taylor & Francis Group
Boca Raton London New York

CRC Press is an imprint of the
Taylor & Francis Group, an informa business

Contents

Acknowledgements	xiii
About the author and commentators	xiv
1 Introduction	1
The structure of the book	2
The commentaries	2
PART 1 GLOBAL HEALTH	3
2 One world health: an overview of global health	5
A global city: open to the world	5
Global health	7
The challenges of global health	9
A time of great change and uncertainty	11
Globalisation: economics and power	13
Health and well-being: science and society	15
National perspectives	16
Back to the future	18
Preventing mother to child transmission of HIV in Pietermaritzburg	18
3 Global health, demography and disease	21
Dhaka: city of energy, exploitation and innovation	21
A global health time-line	23
Demography: population growth and change	24
Fertility, the demographic dividend and dependency	28
The global burden of disease	30
The burden of disease in low and middle income countries	32
Chronic, long term or non-communicable diseases	33
Disability and DALYs	34
Injuries	36
Infectious or communicable diseases	36
Malaria	37
HIV/AIDS	38
Tuberculosis	39
Global action: to control, eliminate and eradicate diseases	40
Smallpox eradication	40
Neglected Tropical Diseases	41
Blinding trachoma: from mapping to elimination	42
Suggested reading and viewing	44

4	Health, well-being and society	47
	Health and well-being in Recife	47
	The Centro Integrado de Saúde	48
	Health and well-being	49
	Measuring health, well-being and happiness	49
	The determinants of health	50
	The Commission on the Social Determinants of Health	52
	Health and wider social, economic and environmental policy	55
	Social protection and conditional cash transfers	56
	Health in All Policies	56
	Health and well-being throughout the life course	57
	Children's health and well-being	57
	Health is made at home	61
	Maternal and reproductive health	62
	Adult health and ageing	64
	Mental health	65
	The man from Mali	68
	Suggested reading	68
5	Latin America: social protection in health for the poor in Mexico	73
	Commentary by Enrique Ruelas and Octavio Gómez-Dantés
	Introduction	73
	Social policies for the poor in Latin America: conditional cash transfers and universal health coverage	74
	Expansion of social protection in health to the poor in Mexico	75
	Health conditions and health services in Mexico at the turn of the century: the need for reform	75
	Creation of the System of Social Protection in Health	77
	Evolution of health expenditure	77
	Expansion of health care coverage	77
	Impact of the Mexican reform on health conditions, responsiveness and financial protection	79
	Prospects and lessons of the Mexican Health Reform	81
6	Culture, rights, equity and social justice	87
	SUNDAR: mental health in India	87
	Culture	89
	Rights	90
	The right to health	91
	Equity	93
	Social justice	94
	Human flourishing and the capability to be healthy	95
	Social structures and health	96
	Gender	96
	Bargaining with patriarchy	98
	Race and ethnicity	100
	Practical and policy implications	102
	Ebola in Sierra Leone	102
	Suggested reading	104

7	Health, food and the physical environment	107
	Climate change and resilience in the Great Lakes region of Africa	107
	Climate change	109
	The health impacts of climate change	110
	Co-benefits	111
	The human environment	112
	Water, sanitation and hygiene	113
	Food and nutrition	115
	Food security and the world food crisis	115
	Nutrition and health	116
	Action on nutrition and acute malnutrition	118
	Suggested reading	120
8	Globalisation, economics and power	123
	Antimicrobial resistance	124
	Globalisation and its impacts on health	125
	Health and economics	126
	The economic transition in health	127
	Health expenditure	130
	Power and politics	131
	War and conflict	131
	The old world order	132
	The breaking up of the post-war settlement	133
	Governance for health	133
	The Washington Consensus	134
	Independence and de-colonisation	135
	The Welfare States of Europe	136
	The new world	137
	Global health security	138
	Health diplomacy	139
	The creation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)	140
	Suggested reading	142
PART 2 TAKING ACTION FOR IMPROVEMENT		145
9	Global health initiatives, aid and development	147
	The Latin American Medical School	147
	Global action	148
	International development	149
	The Human Development Index	150
	Reducing vulnerability and building resilience	152
	Aid	153
	The benefits and contradictions of aid	156
	Efficiency and corruption	156
	Attribution of success	157
	Unintended consequences	158
	Good aid and bad aid	159

	Philanthropy, remittances and private funding	160
	Beyond aid	161
	China	161
	Global health initiatives	162
	Action to improve health globally	164
	The White Ribbon Alliance	164
	Suggested reading	165
10	Sub-Saharan Africa: escaping from dependency	169
	Commentary by Susana Edjang
	Overview	169
	Some context on health in Africa	170
	Aid and aid for health in Africa	171
	HIV/AIDS: an aid dependency crisis multiplier	174
	Ebola: aid and the near collapse of the health systems in Guinea, Liberia and Sierra Leone	176
	Rwanda: aid and partnerships – understanding when urgency can be the enemy of the future	177
	Conclusion: aid as long term investment	178
11	Civil society, NGOs and partnerships	183
	We poor people are invisible	183
	Citizen action	185
	Civil society	186
	Commerce and business	188
	International NGOs	188
	Global health partnerships	190
	Mutual learning and co-development	191
	PONT: community links between Uganda and Wales	192
	Suggested reading	193
12	Patients, carers and professionals	195
	Citizen participation in health improvement in 1970s Kenya	195
	Citizens	196
	Health literacy	197
	Patient empowerment and activation	198
	The global health worker crisis	199
	Migration and health labour markets	201
	Strategic responses	202
	Task sharing, skill mix change and job re-design	203
	Professional education	205
	Leadership and management	207
	From Africa to New York	207
	Suggested reading	208
13	Science and technology	211
	Africa–Europe HDT-NET consortium: tackling multidrug-resistant and extremely drug-resistant TB	211

Science and technology: re-shaping the world	212
Evidence and knowledge	214
Medicines and vaccines	215
Access to medicines	215
Vaccine development	216
Technologies	216
Low cost technologies	217
eHealth	218
Intellectual property, national and commercial interests	219
South Korea's health care industry	220
14 India's health system: paradox of the lagging pace setter	223
Commentary by Srinath Reddy with Manu Raj Mathur
Introduction	223
India's health challenges	224
An under-resourced health system	224
From chaos springs cosmos: India becomes an innovation crucible	225
Universal health coverage: a road too far?	226
Conclusion	227
15 Health systems and the great expansion of health care	231
Heartfile : and the "choked pipes" of the Pakistan health system	231
Universal health coverage	233
Health systems	235
Systems thinking	235
Institutions and relationships	236
Different types of health system	237
Governance	239
Funding health systems	241
Payment and pricing mechanisms	244
Sustainability	244
Public-private relationships	245
A possible model for African health systems	247
Further reading	248
16 The USA: Triple Aim and quality improvement	251
Commentary by Maureen Bisognano
Introduction	251
A 30,000-foot view	252
A "Triple Aim" for US health and health care	253
Pursuing the Triple Aim	254
Conclusion	259
17 Services, quality and implementation	263
Services	263
Primary, community and integrated care	264
Diagnostics	265
Surgery	266

Public-private partnerships and franchises	267
Quality and improvement	269
Quality improvement	270
Patient safety	272
Waste	274
Implementation	275
Methodologies	276
18 China: moving towards universal health coverage	279
Commentary by Guo Yan
Overview of health in China	279
Demographics and social economics	279
Health status	280
Organisational structure of the health system	280
Health expenditure	282
Issues and challenges facing China at the beginning of health care reform	282
Population ageing and the double burden of chronic and infectious diseases	282
The issue of health equity	283
Lack of and inappropriate distribution of medical personnel	283
Insufficiency and imbalanced distribution of financial investment in health	283
Soaring health expenditure	284
Deficiency of the basic medical security system	284
Universal health coverage	285
Reflections on health care development in China	286
The achievements of China's health care development	287
The experience of China's health care development	287
Issues for further exploration	287
19 Conclusions and the future	289
Global health	289
Positive and negative dynamics	290
Principles of description, measurement, evidence and systems	291
The major themes	293
Actions for the future	295
Political, moral and practical choices	295
Action by individuals	296
Action by nations and societies	297
Action globally	298
Appendix 1: Preamble to the Constitution of the World Health Organization	299
Appendix 2: The Sustainable Development Goals	301
Index	303