

An Introduction to Sociology

Fifth Edition

Ken Browne

polity

Contents

Introduction to the Fifth Edition	viii
Acknowledgements	x
How to use this book	xi
 1 The Sociological Approach: Key Ideas and Concepts
What is sociology?	2
What is meant by social structure?	10
What are social processes?	11
Social issues, social problems and social policy	39
 2 Sociological Theories and Research Methods
Different views of society	46
Consensus and conflict views of society	50
Interactionism or interactionist theories	59
Reading statistical data	61
Approaching sociological research	68
Positivism and interpretivism	68
Key issues and problems in evaluating social research	70
Where do sociologists get their information from?	71
The research process	78
Experiments, surveys and sampling	80
Research methods used in surveys and other sociological research	92
The mixed methods approach (or methodological pluralism) and triangulation	106
 3 Families
What is a family?	115
Different forms of family, marriage and household structure	115
Alternatives to the family	125
Consensus and conflict theories of the role of the family in society	127
Family and household diversity	137
Social change and family types, structures and relationships	148

Social change and relationships inside the family	179
A summary of changes in families	190
Critical views of the family: the darker side of family life	191

4 Education

Education as a social issue	204
The role of education in society	205
Education in Britain before the 1970s	221
Comprehensive schools and selection	222
Education from 1988 onwards: the free market in education	226
School diversity	234
Factors influencing educational achievement	243
Inequality in education	246
Is equality of educational opportunity possible to achieve?	280

5 Crime and Deviance

Social control, deviance and crime	286
The social construction of crime and deviance	288
Public debates over crime and deviance	293
Crime, deviance and the media	299
Biological and psychological theories of crime and deviance	303
Sociological theories (or perspectives) on crime and deviance	304
The pattern of crime	323
White-collar and corporate crime	335
Why are some minority ethnic groups over-represented in the crime statistics?	340
Official crime statistics	344
What's wrong with official crime statistics?	346
Is the crime rate increasing or decreasing?	353
The victims of crime	356
Crime control, prevention and punishment	358
Deviance, crime and social change	362

6 Social Stratification and Social Inequality

The significance of social inequality	368
Social inequality as a social issue	369
What is social stratification?	370
Systems of stratification	371
Social class stratification and inequality	375
Gender stratification and inequality	410
Ethnic stratification and inequality	431
Age stratification and inequality	441
Stratification, inequality and disability	448

Religion and sexuality as dimensions of inequality	450
Stratification and inequalities in power and authority	452
Poverty	464

7 The Media

What are the media?	498
Traditional and new media	498
Patterns of media use – who uses the media, and what for?	503
The significance of the new media in contemporary society	508
The role of advertising in the media	515
Ownership and control of the media	517
The content of the media: media bias, public opinion and social control	523
Censorship, freedom of the media and democracy	535
The media and socialization	540
Media representations and stereotyping	545
The influence of the media – the effects of the media on audiences	559
Violence and the media	565
Into the future	567

8 Health and Illness

online

The social construction of the body, health and illness
Defining health, illness and disease
The biomedical and social models of health and illness
Becoming a health statistic
How society influences health
The food industry
Sociological theories of health and illness
Inequalities in health

AQA and WJEC-Eduqas 'classic text' references	572
Glossary	574
Answers to questions in chapter 2	597
Illustration credits	598
Index	600