

Religious Activism in the Global Economy

Promoting, Reforming, or Resisting Neoliberal Globalization?

Edited by
Sabine Dreher and Peter J. Smith

ROWMAN &
LITTLEFIELD
INTERNATIONAL

London • New York

Contents

1	Religion and International Political Economy—A Case of Mutual Neglect	1
	Sabine Dreher
2	Historical and Theoretical Perspectives on Religion and Capitalism	21
	Sabine Dreher, Peter J. Smith, and Edward Webb
3	Religious Demographic Trends: Patterns of Growth and Decline, 1950–2010	41
	Davis Brown
4	The Prosperity Gospel and the Globalization of American Capitalism	57
	Michael Wilkinson
5	God, Wealth, and the Spirit of Investment: Prosperity Pentecostalism in Africa	73
	Asonzeh Ukah
6	Neoliberal Capitalism and the Emergence of Corporate Hinduism in Urban India	91
	Surya Prakash Upadhyay
7	The Globalization Project of the Hizmet Movement	109
	Sabine Dreher
8	Islamic Social Democracy? Ennahda's Approach to Economic Development in Tunisia	129
	Edward Webb

9	Promoting Neoliberalism through Islam? The Case of the AKP in Turkey	149
	Umut Bozkurt
10	Preaching Development: Shi'i Piety and Neoliberalism in Beirut	167
	Fouad Gehad Marei
11	Religion and Corporate Social Responsibility: Taming Neoliberalism?	189
	Michael MacLeod
12	Taxing the Rich: Interfaith Activism in Tanzania's Mining Sector	209
	Aikande Kwayu
13	Greed and Climate Change: Confronting Economic Globalization in the US Religious Environmental Movement	229
	Justyna Nicinska
14	Faith, Global Justice, and Resistance to Neoliberalism: From the World Social Forum to Occupy!	249
	Peter J. Smith and Elizabeth Smythe
15	Indianismo and Decoloniality: Voices of Resistance	269
	Marcos Scauso
16	Religious Arguments in the Global Economy	287
	Peter J. Smith
	Index	305
	Notes on Contributors	311