

PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT OF EU LAW BEFORE NATIONAL COURTS

The EU Legislative Framework

FOLKERT WILMAN

*Member of the Legal Service of the European Commission, Belgium

 All views expressed are strictly personal and cannot be ascribed to the European Commission.*

ELGAR EUROPEAN LAW AND PRACTICE

 Edward Elgar
PUBLISHING

Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA

EXTENDED TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of abbreviations	xiii
Table of cases and opinions	xv
Table of legislation and official documents	xxxi

PART A INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

1. INTRODUCTION
A. THE VIGILANCE OF INDIVIDUALS IN EU LAW	1.01
1. The creation of a private enforcement model	1.01
2. EU involvement with private enforcement	1.06
B. THE EU LEGISLATIVE FRAMEWORK	1.09
1. Brief overview	1.09
2. Purpose and selection	1.14
3. Outline	1.17
2. KEY PRINCIPLES, PUBLIC ENFORCEMENT AND CASE LAW
A. NATIONAL PROCEDURAL AUTONOMY, EQUIVALENCE AND EFFECTIVENESS	2.01
1. Principle of national procedural autonomy	2.01
2. Principle of equivalence	2.05
3. Principle of effectiveness	2.07
B. PRINCIPLE OF EFFECTIVE JUDICIAL PROTECTION	2.10
1. Effective judicial protection: Introduction	2.10
2. Effective judicial protection: Application	2.13
C. PUBLIC ENFORCEMENT	2.16
1. Infringement proceedings	2.16
2. Other forms of public enforcement	2.18
D. KEY CASE LAW RELATING TO PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT	2.21
1. Simmenthal, Factortame and Francovich	2.21
2. Courage and Muñoz	2.24
3. Comparison and assessment	2.26

PART B SELECTED EU LEGISLATION

3. PUBLIC PROCUREMENT LAW
A. INTRODUCTION	3.01
1. Substantive EU public procurement law	3.01
2. Procurement Remedies Directives: General issues	3.04
3. Additional general remarks	3.10
B. REMEDIES	3.13
1. Interim measures and setting aside injunctions	3.13
2. Actions for damages	3.16
3. Contractual remedy	3.20
C. PROCEDURAL PROVISIONS	3.25
1. Legal standing, limitation periods and standstill periods	3.25
2. Forum and procedure	3.28

D. OTHER ENFORCEMENT ISSUES	3.30
1. Alternative compliance mechanisms and alternative dispute resolution	3.30
2. Public enforcement	3.32
4. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW
A. INTRODUCTION	4.01
1. Substantive law and infringements	4.01
2. IPR Enforcement Directive: General issues	4.04
3. Additional general remarks	4.09
B. REMEDIES	4.13
1. Measures on the disclosure of evidence	4.13
2. Interlocutory injunctions and seizures	4.19
3. Corrective measures and “permanent” injunctions	4.23
4. Actions for damages	4.26
5. Legal costs and publicity measures	4.31
C. PROCEDURAL PROVISIONS	4.33
1. Legal standing	4.33
2. Forum and procedure	4.34
D. OTHER ENFORCEMENT ISSUES	4.36
1. Alternative dispute resolution	4.36
2. Public enforcement	4.37
5. CONSUMER PROTECTION LAW
A. INTRODUCTION	5.01
1. Background	5.01
2. Substantive EU consumer law and consumers’ rights of redress	5.03
B. CONSUMER INJUNCTIONS DIRECTIVE: INJUNCTIONS	5.05
1. Introduction, mutual recognition and remedies	5.05
2. Other provisions, practical effects and other legislation	5.09
C. UNFAIR TERMS DIRECTIVE: CONTRACTUAL REMEDIES	5.14
1. Introduction and contractual remedy	5.14
2. Own-motion judicial review, practical effects and other legislation	5.19
D. PRODUCT LIABILITY DIRECTIVE: DAMAGES	5.24
1. Introduction, no-fault liability and damage	5.24
2. Limits, practical effects and other legislation	5.29
E. OTHER ENFORCEMENT ISSUES	5.35
1. General	5.35
2. Collective redress	5.36
3. Alternative dispute resolution	5.40
4. Public enforcement	5.43
6. COMPETITION LAW
A. INTRODUCTION	6.01
1. Substantive EU competition law and its application	6.01
2. Infringements and damage	6.06
3. Article 101(2) TFEU: Contractual remedy	6.08
B. TOWARDS THE COMPETITION DAMAGES DIRECTIVE	6.10
1. Early developments (1960–2000)	6.10
2. Legislative reform and Courage case law (2000–05)	6.13
3. Green paper, white paper and draft proposal (2005–10)	6.17
4. Pfleiderer case law and proposal (2010–13)	6.21
C. COMPETITION DAMAGES DIRECTIVE	6.24
1. General issues	6.24
2. Actions for damages, qualification and quantification	6.28
3. Measures on the disclosure of evidence	6.31
4. Joint and several liability and passing-on	6.36
5. Procedural provisions	6.39

D. OTHER ENFORCEMENT ISSUES	6.44
1. Alternative dispute resolution and settlements	6.44
2. Public enforcement	6.46

PART C COMPARISON AND CONTEXTUALISATION: REMEDIES AND PROCEDURES

7. ACTIONS FOR DAMAGES AND ACTIONS FOR INJUNCTIONS

A. ACTIONS FOR DAMAGES	7.01
1. General: Contradictions and paradoxes	7.01
2. Fault	7.06
3. Causality	7.10
4. Quantification of damages	7.14
5. Qualification of damages and joint and several liability	7.18
6. Punitive damages and other damages going beyond compensation	7.22
B. ACTIONS FOR INJUNCTIONS	7.26
1. Comparative overview and general remarks	7.26
2. Injunctions: Practice and applicable conditions	7.29
3. Competition law and cross-border litigation	7.33

8. CONTRACTUAL AND OTHER REMEDIES

A. CONTRACTUAL REMEDIES	8.01
1. Terminology, nature and functioning in practice	8.01
2. Member States' flexibility and non-infringing provisions	8.07
3. Excluded contracts	8.09
B. OTHER PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT REMEDIES	8.14
1. Interim relief	8.14
2. Measures on the disclosure of evidence	8.19
3. Recurring penalty payments	8.23
4. Publicity measures	8.26
5. Measures on legal costs	8.29
6. "Unregulated" remedies: Declarations, unjust enrichment, restitution	8.33

9. PROCEDURAL ISSUES

A. SCOPE AND LEGAL STANDING	9.01
1. Scope	9.01
2. Legal standing	9.05
B. LIMITATION PERIODS AND RULES OF EVIDENCE	9.09
1. Limitation periods	9.09
2. Rules of evidence	9.15
C. FORUM AND RULES FACILITATING SETTLEMENTS	9.19
1. Forum	9.19
2. Rules facilitating settlements	9.23
D. JUDICIAL REVIEW	9.28
1. Standard of judicial review	9.28
2. Own-motion judicial review	9.32

PART D BROADER ASPECTS, PERSPECTIVES AND CONCLUSIONS

10. THE HOW, WHEN AND WHY OF EU LEGISLATION ON PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT

A. THE EU'S LEGAL SCOPE TO ACT	10.01
1. Legal basis issues	10.01
2. Subsidiarity, proportionality and fundamental rights	10.07
3. National procedural autonomy revisited	10.11

B. POLITICAL ASPECTS AND POLICY-RELATED FACTORS	10.15
1. Political aspects	10.15
2. Overall enforcement framework	10.18
3. International dimension	10.23
4. Temporal aspect	10.25
C. THE ADDED VALUE OF EU LEGISLATION ON PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT	10.29
1. Legislative v judicial action	10.29
2. Other relevant factors	10.34
D. COHERENCE AND FRAGMENTATION	10.37
1. Coherence and fragmentation at EU level	10.37
2. Coherence and fragmentation at national level	10.42
3. Towards a more coherent approach?	10.46
 11. TWO PERSPECTIVES ON PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT
A. THE EFFECTIVENESS PERSPECTIVE	11.01
1. Two expressions of effectiveness	11.01
2. From dual nature to dual vigilance	11.04
3. Tensions and potential conflicts	11.08
4. Three final remarks	11.13
B. THE HORIZONTALISATION PERSPECTIVE	11.16
1. The horizontalisation of EU law and its enforcement	11.16
2. Private enforcement implications	11.21
3. Costs, litigation culture and diffuse interests	11.25
4. Hybrid enforcement	11.28
5. Fundamental rights (1): Horizontal effects and “civil” rights	11.33
6. Fundamental rights (2): “Criminal” rights	11.36
 12. SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS
A. PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT BETWEEN INTERFERENCE AND AUTONOMY	12.01
1. The scope for enacting EU legislation on private enforcement	12.01
2. The limits to the EU’s scope to act and its consequences	12.04
B. REMEDIES AND PROCEDURES FOR PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT PURPOSES	12.07
1. Actions for damages	12.07
2. Actions for injunctions	12.10
3. Contractual remedies	12.13
4. Interim relief, measures on the disclosure of evidence and penalty payments	12.17
5. Publicity measures, legal costs and “unregulated” remedies	12.20
6. Scope, legal standing, limitation periods and rules of evidence	12.23
7. Forum, rules facilitating settlements and judicial review	12.27
C. PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT IN PERSPECTIVE	12.30
1. Private enforcement as a supplementary enforcement instrument	12.30
2. Concluding remarks	12.38
 Bibliography	565
Index	599