

JEWISH THEOLOGY FOR A POSTMODERN AGE

MIRIAM FELDMANN KAYE

London

The Littman Library of Jewish Civilization
in association with Liverpool University Press

2019

CONTENTS

Note on Transliteration xi

Introduction 1

Conceptual Backdrop: The Enigma of Postmodernism 2

Objectives 3

Concepts and Terminology 5

The Focus of This Book 12

Reading Tamar Ross: Two Theological Principles 14

Reading Shagar 17

Comparative Methodologies 17

1. Culture 19

Cultural Particularism 19

The Deconstruction of Universalism 30

Multiple Truths and the Perils of Relativism 48

Conclusions 55

2. Language 59

The Problem of Language 59

Religious Language in a Postmodern Age 61

Shagar: Language, Semiotics, and Theology 65

Ross: Language and Imagination 80

Conclusions 96

3. Revelation 99

Torah min hashamayim through a Postmodern Lens 99

Culture and Revelation: The Role of the Community 105

Language and Revelation: Mysticism and Deconstructionism 116

Imaging and Imagining: 'Visionary Theology' for the Postmodern Age 123

Conclusion 125

'Visionary Theology' 125

The Future: Jewish Approaches to

Other Religions and Interreligious Dialogue 129

Bibliography 137

Index 153