Gábor Klaniczay · Éva Pócs
Editors

Witchcraft and Demonology in Hungary and Transylvania

palgrave macmillan
Contents

Introduction 1
Gábor Klaniczay and Éva Pócs

The Social Background of Witchcraft Accusations in Early Modern Debrecen and Bihar County 13
Ildikó Sz. Kristóf

Witchcraft, Greed and Revenge: The Prosecutor Activity of György Igyártó and the Witch Trials of Kolozsvár in the 1580s 91
László Pakó

Healers in Hungarian Witch Trials 111
Gábor Klaniczay

Divinatio Diabolica and Superstitious Medicine: Healers, Seers and Diviners in the Changing Discourse of Witchcraft in Early Modern Nagybánya 159
Judit Kis-Halas

Shamanism or Witchcraft? The Táltos Before the Tribunals 221
Éva Pócs
The Decriminalization of Magic and the Fight Against Superstition in Hungary and Transylvania, 1740–1848
Pèter Tóth G. 291

Demonology and Catholic Enlightenment in Eighteenth-Century Hungary
Dániel Bárth 319

Talking Through Witchcraft—on the Bewitchment Discourse of a Village Community
Ágnes Hesz 349

Index 395
LIST OF TABLES

Divinatio Diabolica and Superstitious Medicine
Judit Kis-Halas

Table 1  Trials, accused people and the accused with magical occupation  166
Table 2  People with magical occupation figuring in the trial documents  166
Table 3  Names of diseases and the frequency of their occurrence  178
Table 4  Therapies, treatments  180
Table 5  Divination methods  183

The Decriminalization of Magic and the Fight Against Superstition in Hungary and Transylvania, 1740–1848
Péter Tóth G.

Table 1  Number of people accused of magical activity (671 people) ... in the Kingdom of Hungary (1740–1848)  297
Table 2  Number of people accused of magical activity (220 people) ... in the Transylvanian Principality (1740–1848)  297
Table 3  The hierarchy of the legal authorities according to the average of judicial sentences (Hungary)  305
Table 4  The hierarchy of the legal authorities according to the average of judicial sentences (Transylvania)  307
Table 5  Number of accused in criminal proceedings (671 people) according to the number of inflicted judgments and to the yearly average of the inflicted judgments (Hungary)

Table 6  Number of accused in criminal proceedings (220 people) according to the number of inflicted judgments and to the yearly average of the inflicted judgments (Transylvania)