

Criminal Networks and Law Enforcement

Global Perspectives on Illegal Enterprise

Edited by
Saskia Hufnagel and Anton Moiseienko

Contents

List of contributors	vii
1 Introduction	1
SASKIA HUFNAGEL AND ANTON MOISEIENKO
PART I
Formation of criminal networks	5
2 Co-offending in Norway: A comparative perspective	7
SYNØVE N. ANDERSEN
3 Sticking together: Evidence of co-offending partnerships in two-mode covert networks	28
CHIARA BROCCATELLI, MARTIN EVERETT AND JOHAN KOSKINEN
PART II
Management of criminal networks	53
4 ‘It’s just business’: Leaders’ strategies for risk management in criminal networks	55
SIOBHAN LAWLER AND DAVID BRIGHT
5 Cybercrime, money mules and situational crime prevention: Recruitment, motives and involvement mechanisms	75
E.R. (RUTGER) LEUKFELDT AND E.R. (EDWARD) KLEEMANS

PART III

Illicit trafficking networks 91

- 6 To get a good price, ‘you have to sell in international bidding sites’: Trafficking of metal-detected cultural goods from South Asia 93

SAMUEL HARDY

- 7 Using Routine Activity Theory to explain illegal fishing in the Indo-Pacific 120

JADE LINDLEY AND ERIKA TECHERA

PART IV

Criminal networks and politics 137

- 8 Meet the in-betweeners: Exploring the quality and strength of ties in the ‘Mafia Capitale’ network in Rome 139

ANNA SERGI

- 9 Power and trust networks in the organisation of crime in Ukraine 162

ANNA MARKOVSKA AND PETRUS C. VAN DUYNÉ

- 10 The social organisation of treason: Anti-Hitler networks in the Third Reich 178

ROBERT R. FAULKNER AND ERIC R. CHENEY

PART V

Advancing the field 205

- 11 Organised crime research 1985–2014: Mapping research dynamics through social network analysis 207

PANOS KOSTAKOS

- 12 Network analysis – Quo vadis?: A look at future developments in the field 225

SASKIA HUFNAGEL AND ANTON MOISEIENKO

- Index 235