

AMERICAN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

BY

BERNARD SCHWARTZ

*Professor of Law and Director of the Institute of Comparative Law
New York University*

WITH A FOREWORD BY

A. L. GOODHART, K.B.E., Q.C.

Master of University College, Oxford

CAMBRIDGE
AT THE UNIVERSITY PRESS

1955

CONTENTS

Foreword	page ix
Preface	xiii

PART I. THE STRUCTURE

Chapter I The Bases of the American System	3
II The Federal System	27
III The Congress	49
IV The President	85
V The Courts	125

PART II. MODERN DEVELOPMENTS

VI The New Federalism	163
VII Presidential Prerogative and the Steel Seizure Case	187
VIII The Changing Role of the Supreme Court	207
IX The Negro and the Law	222
X Civil Liberties and the 'Cold War'	240
XI Administrative Law	283
XII The United States and the United Nations	308
Appendix: Constitution of the United States of America	333
Index of Cases	347
General Index	353