

Complex Criminality

D. Abels, D. Bruin & H. van der Wilt (eds.)

eleven

international publishing

Table of contents

Complex Criminality – an introduction	i
The Dutch law on drugs.....	1
Introduction.....	1
1 Three level policy making	3
1.1 The beginnings of an international drugs policy	3
1.2 From international to domestic drug policy	3
1.3 Role of the local authorities	6
1.4 Hierarchy, limitations and complications.....	7
1.5 National and local	12
2. Conclusion	19
Bibliography	21
Experts and the ultimate issue rule	23
1. Complex criminality and the use of experts.....	23
2. Theory on fact finding in criminal trials	24
3. The ultimate issue rule in England.....	27
4. The ultimate issue rule in the Netherlands.....	30
5. Conclusion: the need for a critical assessment of expert testimony	37
Bibliography	39
Maintain Proportionate Sentencing in Rewarding Criminal Cooperators	43
Introduction.....	43
1. Meritorious Service (ligong) in China	45
1.1 Cooperator's Meritorious Service	46
1.2 Legal Concessions from Criminal Justice Authorities	47
2. Rewarding Assisting Offenders in England and Wales	49
2.1 Cooperator's Assistance.....	50
2.2 Legal Concessions from Criminal Justice Authorities	51
3. Balancing Cooperation and Concession to Maintain	52
Proportionality in Sentencing	52

3.1 Appropriate Credits for Assistance	53
3.2 Sanctions on Non-Cooperation	55
3.3 Visibility of Mitigation, Aggravation, and Mid-Ground.....	56
4. Conclusions.....	57
Bibliography	59
Expert evidence in criminal legal proceedings: three approaches to ensuring the accuracy of expert evidence in criminal proceedings	63
Introduction.....	63
1. Three approaches	64
2. Criterion.....	65
3. The first approach: minimum criteria	67
4. The second approach: specialization.....	71
5. The third approach: adversarial debate	74
6. Conclusion	75
Bibliography	79
Dealing with dictators: the importance of interdisciplinary research when addressing complex criminality.....	85
Introduction.....	85
1. Law: Extent of legal obligations	87
2. Genocide studies: Instigating international crimes	91
3. Foreign policy analysis: Dictators centre stage.....	96
4. Sociology: Taking the differences into consideration.....	97
5. Conclusion	99
Bibliography	101