

Contents

Acknowledgements	viii
List of Abbreviations	x
List of Boxes	xiii
Introduction	1
1. The Cold War Era—Non-Intervention or a Humanitarian Exception	7
Non-Intervention and the Post-War Settlement	8
International Law: Constraints on Sovereignty?	11
Defending Non-Intervention	17
a) Non-Intervention and the Inside Face of Sovereignty	17
b) Non-Intervention from an International Perspective: The Outside Face of Sovereignty	25
Intervention and Non-Intervention in Practice	28
2. The Post-Cold War Transformation	38
Attitudes towards Democracy, Human Rights and Sovereignty	39
International Institutions and Peace-Building	42
Democratisation and the Development of an International Human Rights Regime	44
Humanitarian Intervention	49
Part 1 Cases	49
Part 2 Arguments	69
a) Ethics and New Norms	69

CONTENTS

b) International Social Conflict	71
c) Progressive Social Values	73
Conclusion	77
3. Human Rights, Humanitarianism and Intervention	80
Human Rights, Regime Change and Humanitarian Intervention	84
Regime Change	84
Human Rights Violations or Humanitarian Violations?	87
Humanitarianism	93
The Traditional View: Humanitarianism as the Antithesis of Politics and Violence	94
The Perennial Dilemmas of Humanitarian Organizations	98
Rethinking Humanitarianism	104
Conclusion	109
4. Inhumanity and Liberalism	111
Neo-liberalism and Violent Conflict	112
Ethnic Conflict and Market Dominant Minorities	116
Global Governance and New Wars	118
Transitions and Violence	119
Policy Prescriptions: The Liberal Peace	121
Angola	124
Rwanda	126
Conclusion	137
5. After Intervention	138
International Administration or Liberal Imperialism?	140
International Governmental Regimes: Three Case Studies	145
Bosnia-Herzegovina	145
Kosovo	155
East Timor/Timor-Leste	163
Assessments and Lessons	176
6. The Responsibility to Protect	181
Re-Thinking Humanitarian Intervention: Conceptual Issues	182
Development and Human Security	183
The Responsibility to Protect	188
Just Wars	192

CONTENTS

Right Intention	196
Right Authority	198
A New Commitment or New Words?	201
Conclusion	211
Afterword: Facing the Future—Humanitarianism and Politics	213
Bibliography	219